'A mindless mob'

Judge slams 'disgraceful scenes' as 13 people sentenced for riots

Charlie Wroblewski

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THREE of the youngest people in the country to be named and shamed following the riots in August were among 13 sentenced on Monday.

The 'mindless mob' - one of whom was 15-year-old Lewis Nicholls - was being sentenced following the trouble that swept through Milton Keynes and Bletchley on August 9.

After a two-day court hearing, Nicholls - who attended Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court in his school uniform for a hearing last month - walked from Aylesbury Crown Court with a youth rehabilitation order after the judge ruled exceptional circumstances existed in his case.

Charlie Wroblewski, 16, and Daryl Hall, 17, were handed detention training orders of 12 months and eight months respectively.

Usually, a Section 39 order would exist to prevent the press from naming offenders under the age of 18, but in this case the orders were lifted after Judge Francis Sheridan cited public interest - that those who committed crime on this scale should be known to the public.

In August a gang of youths marched through the streets of MK and Bletchley, terrorising passers-by as they left a wave of destruction behind them in copy-cat scenes of the London riots.

Dozens of shop fronts, including the fascia of a charity hospice shop, were destroyed, and an innocent woman's car was kicked and thumped as she tried to drive through the crowd.

The owners of a Chinese take-away were punched and robbed of their takings, while other members of the gang smashed their way through the window.

A judge was told how a bus was set upon by the gang, who kicked and threw objects at it while the driver attempted to get away.

Police later found prepared petrol bombs hidden under cars along the rampage route.

Others sentenced included Spencer Layne, 23, from Fishermead, who had earlier in the day used his Facebook page to post pro-rioting messages - but he was not charged with inciting a riot. He was jailed for 26 months.

Somalian-born, 22-year-old Mahad Abdi was handed a three-year jail sentence after being involved in the robbery of the Golden Palace takeaway.

Nigel Baiden, 18, was jailed for 32 months.

Seven members of the gang were sentenced to stints in a young offenders' institute.

Aaron Cunningham, 19, was sentenced to 26 months; Charlie Fisher, 18, to 20 months; Nicolas Balibuno, 18, to 16 months; Tafadzwa Sibanda, 20, to 15 months; Jack Mossman, 18, to 14 months; Resal Bray, 18 years, to eight months; and Pius Ofori, 18, also to eight months.

Sentencing the 13 men and juveniles, Judge Sheridan said each had played a part in the disgraceful disorder.

He said: "These were disgraceful scenes.

"You defendants chose to join the mindless mob. The police were stretched to breaking point because every spare officer was released to London.

"The mob charged at police officers and many of you had hoods on and scarves to cover your face, this was a clear intention to cause trouble.

"The emotional damage and fear caused was startling."

A 14th member of the gang, aged 15, will be sentenced on December 19.

Two further men, accused of violent disorder relating to the same incident and who cannot be named for legal reasons, deny the charge and will face a trial in January.

Fare's not fair: Liam Sheridan with his cardboard figure of Sgt Fenix for which the bus driver charged him to travel

Cardboard cut-out is charged bus fare

BY CHARLIE RAY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A TEENAGER was stunned when his lifesize cardboard cut-out of a computer game character was charged a full adult fare for catching the bus.

MK College student Liam Sheridan was told by the driver his picture of Sergeant Marcus Fenix, from Xbox game Gears of War 3, would have to be paid for.

Liam, 17, had just landed the cut-out as a prize having won a competition at thecentre:mk and was trying to make his way home to Furzton.

After collecting 'Sgt Fenix', he headed to the bus station and waited until the No 7 Arriva bus arrived.

But Liam was left gobsmacked when the driver charged him a full adult fare for the cardboard cut-out.

Liam said: "I got on the bus and showed the driver my monthly pass and as I went to sit down, he asked for £1.80.

"When I asked the driver why I had to pay as I already had a ticket, he pointed to the cardboard cut-out and said I had to pay full price to have it on board as it would take up a full seat."

After disputing the extra fare, Liam eventually coughed up the extra money to get both him and his cardboard cut-out back home.

He said: "It was truly bizarre, I couldn't quite believe it.

"I tried to protest but the driver wasn't going to let me on otherwise, so I paid him as I just wanted to get back home.

"If the bus had been full I could possibly understand it, but I was the only person on board – the bus was empty."

A spokeswoman for Arriva said: "We are sorry that Mr Sheridan was charged extra on his journey.

"We generally don't charge extra for luggage, especially if the bus is not full.

"If Mr Sheridan contacts us with his address we will send him some complimentary tickets."

We asked Microsoft, which publishes Gears of War 3, to speculate as to whether the bus driver might have mistaken the cardboard cut-out of legendary war hero Sgt Fenix carrying a Lancer Assault Rifle for a real person, but a spokesman said he could not comment on the incident before our deadline.

Boy robbed of 20p and phone by three men

THREE men robbed a 16-year-old of 20p and his mobile phone and punched him in the face.

The incident happened on Monday at around 3.30pm, when the boy was playing on the basketball court at Pennylands.

Three men, one white and two mixed race, approached him and asked for the time.

The victim took out his BlackBerry Curve mobile phone and told them. The three men then left.

The boy played for five more minutes, then left and began to walk away.

As he got to the underpass, the three men ran towards him and one told him to hand over his mobile phone and money.

He then searched the boy's pockets, stealing 20p and the phone, before hitting him in the face.

The man who punched the boy is white, between 18 and 19, 6ft, with short brown hair, a gold tooth and a squint. He was wearing a blue or black top, blue or black trousers with a white line on each leg, and spoke in what was called 'street' style.

The second man is mixed race, between 18 and 19, 6ft, with short black hair in an afro. He was wearing a zipped up black leather jacket with a hood and white zip.

The third man is mixed race, between 18 and 19, of a smaller build, about 5ft 10ins, with short black dreadlocked hair. He was wearing a grey jumper with a logo and black tracksuit.

Anyone with information should call 101, or 0800 555 111.

Hacking probe arrest

A MAN from Milton Keynes has become the first to be arrested as part of the Metropolitan Police's computer hacking investigations.

On Thursday morning, officers from Operation Tuleta arrested a 52-year-old man in the city on suspicion of Computer Misuse Act offences.

The man was then taken into custody at a Thames Valley Police station.

He was later bailed to return to a London police station early next month.

Operation Tuleta is investigating a number of allegations regarding breach of privacy, received by the Metropolitan Police since January 2011.

The operation covers those allegations which fell outside the remit of Operation Weeting, set up in January to investigate phone hacking.

Plan meeting moved

A REHAB centre planing application in the middle of a residential area will be discussed at a meeting – but the venue has been changed.

On November 9, MK NEWS reported how an application has been submitted to Milton Keynes Council for a 32-bed, male-only centre on the site of the derelict White Hart pub in Whaddon Way, Bletchley.

A West Bletchley Parish Council meeting has now been set up to discuss the application next week.

The meeting, due to be held on Monday night at 7pm, has moved from its original location to the Adult Continuing Education Centre in Trent Road, Bletchley, at the same time.

A decision on the proposal is expected to be made by the Milton Keynes Council planning committee in January.

MK-Reading line to be reopened

THE East West Rail line will be reinstated, it was announced yesterday in the Chancellor's Autumn Statement.

The decision to reopen the old line - which passes through MK and Bletchley directly to Reading - follows a long campaign by East West Rail Consortium and the city's MPs.

Last year, Iain Stewart and Mark Lancaster met with the Rail Minister, Theresa Villiers MP, to lobby for the reopening of the route, which runs from Bletchley to Oxford.

Mr Stewart also held a debate in the House last week, and pressed the Minister on the issue.

The East West Rail line will allow passenger and freight services from Bedford and MK Central, through Bletchley and westwards to Oxford, Reading and Aylesbury.

Mr Stewart and Mr Lancaster, warmly welcomed the announcement by the Chancellor.

Mr Stewart, who established and chairs an All Party Group on East West Rail, said: "I am delighted that the Chancellor has recognised how vital this rail line is in stimulating economic growth in our region.

"As a long-standing champion of this project, I am thrilled that we could see trains running on this line by 2017."

His Milton Keynes North counterpart Mr Lancaster added: "This is great news for the city and comes after years of pressure.

"The EWR line will allow passenger services to Oxford, Bicester and Reading without the need to go into central London, saving commuters both time and money."

Dons ace fails to avoid driving ban

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS striker Jabo Ibehre was banned from driving for six months yesterday – after claiming he could be attacked by opposing fans if he used public transport.

The 28-year-old, named man-of-the-match after scoring against Wycombe on Saturday, drove his Audi Q7 at 88mph in a 50mph section of the M1 on May 3.

Two months earlier he had also jumped a red light in Dunstable.

After pleading guilty to both offences the 6ft 4ins tall striker claimed club rules meant he had to wear his Dons tracksuit back from games so he was in danger of being recognised by opposition fans after home matches.

Lloydette Bai-Marrow, prosecuting, said: "On March 8, 2011, the defendant was driving an Audi Q7 on Luton Road in Dunstable.

"He failed to comply with a red traffic signal placed on Luton Road at the junction of Woodford Road. He proceeded through the red light.

"On May 3 he was driving the same vehicle on the M1 motorway between junctions one and two when he was recorded exceeding the speed limit of 50mph at 88mph.

"He was stopped by an officer and was spoken about the speed.

Mr Ibehre at a previous hearing

"The offence was pointed out to him and according to the officer there was no response."

The footballer told Hendon Magistrates Court he was unable to use public transport after away games, causing him exceptional hardship.

But as he imposed the ban chair of the magistrates Dr Malcolm Cohen dismissed Mr Ibehre's pleas saying he could afford a cab or a stay in a 'cheap hotel'.

Asked by his lawyer, Andrew Henley, if he could get public transport back from home games, Mr Ibehre said: "Not really, because the nature of the job is that you have to wear your club tracksuit and I would be recognised by the fans of the other team."

For away games Ibehre said he drove to the stadium and travelled on the team coach.

He admitted he could use public transport on the way there, but that by the time he got back it could be too late to get to his home in Fairbridge Road, Upper Holloway.

He added that he could get a cab home which would cost £100 and Dr Cohen suggested that he could book himself into a Travelodge.

Mr Henley said Mr Ibehre, who already had nine penalty points, had 'a certain status in the club because of his age and position'.

He was also ordered to pay £1,315 costs and had six points added to his licence for speeding.

Dr Cohen said: "Exceptional hardship is exactly that - based on what we have heard we believe it falls far short of exceptional. You are a person of reasonable means.

"It is possible for you to arrange for a minicab or accommodation.

"There is no exceptional hardship which justifies us departing from the law."

An MK Dons spokesman said: "It is standard practice for first team players and staff to travel to and from away games in their club tracksuits."

Pedestrian hit by van is in critical condition

A PEDESTRIAN was seriously injured on Monday when he was hit by a van.

The collision happened at around 5am on the V7 Saxon Street, in Fishermead.

The pedestrian, a man in his early 20s, suffered serious injuries and was initially taken to Milton Keynes Hospital, before being transferred to the John Radcliffe Hospital in Oxford.

His condition is described as critical.

The van involved was a black car-derived Vauxhall Astra. The driver, a 48-year-old man, was taken to hospital for treatment to minor injuries.

Officers are now appealing for witnesses to the collision.

Anyone with information should contact either Sgt Scott Silk or PC Rob Lyne on the non-emergency number 101.

If you don't want to speak to police or give your name, call the Crimestoppers charity on 0800 555 111.

MK man dies in diving incident off Plymouth

A MAN from Milton Keynes has died while diving off the coast of Plymouth.

At 11.47am on Saturday, Devon and Cornwall Police was informed by Brixham Coastguard of an incident involving a 54-year-old male diver in Plymouth Sound.

The Plymouth-based RNLI Lifeboat, which was on exercise in the Sound at the time, responded quickly and went to the aid of the man.

Lifeboat crew assisted with CPR and transported him back to land where he was pronounced dead.

The man had visited Plymouth to take part in recreational diving and was with other divers on an organised boat trip when the incident happened.

The next of kin and the family have been informed, and a post-mortem will be conducted later this week.

Why agree this change?

SIR - You reported on November 16 that Milton Keynes Council has moved some communities from one parish to another ('Parish borders to be changed').

Arguing that Woughton on the Green should leave Woughton parish, Councillor Andy Dransfield said 'We have to respect the wishes of local residents' because it was what more than 90 per cent of the residents there who responded to Milton Keynes Council's consultation wanted'.

More than 90 per cent of the residents of Willen, asked by Milton Keynes Council at the same time as Woughton, wanted to stay within the Campbell Park parish.

Yet Cllr Dransfield, and the rest of the Tory group, successfully argued for Willen to move to Great Linford. How was he then respecting the wishes of the local residents?

If he meant what he said in the first case, why did he not act in the same way in the second?

The only logical explanation is that the Tories on the council think they know better than the people of Willen. It makes a nonsense of the process of consultation and a mockery of democracy.

'Endless' lights

SIR - I was interested to read Philip Ashbourn's letter and the mention of the New Bradwell to Newport Pagnell road (MK News, November 23).

Credit where credit's due, the M1 J14 changes, that I was very sceptical about, have been a great improvement, but the Newport/Wolverton Road is becoming a road like those in other towns, an endless line of traffic lights to slow down the once marvellous grid road system. The perfectly good roundabout at the top of V7 was removed, taking about nine months and causing endless congestion, and a new set of expensive traffic lights have been installed that delay progress in all directions.

In addition, we are seeing new lights at regular intervals along the remainder of the route.

If we stop wasting money on these unnecessary changes we could afford to create 'proper' redways with underpasses in the new expansion areas.

The town planners really have lost their way.

Giffard Park

Flight path backed

SIR - I read the article in the MK NEWS on November 2 regarding Cranfield Airport's proposed changes to flight operations ('Views sought on flight path plans').

I'm a pilot that flies from Cranfield Airport and believe the introduction of an instrument approach onto runway 03 will not impose any significant increase in noise around Milton Keynes. The instrument approach will simply increase safety and efficiency.

As it stands only runway 21 has an instrumental landing system and therefore when runway 03 is in use instrument traffic will still have to use runway 21 (the opposite end to runway 03).

The application of an instrument approach on runway 03 will therefore allow all aircraft to land on runway 03 when wind direction permits, increasing safety and efficiency.

Milton Keynes will not suffer from increased noise but may benefit from the business it may help generate.

Cranfield has few business jet visitors, however one of the most frequent is Red Bull, which of course has an establishment in Milton Keynes and therefore contributes to our local economy and provides jobs too.

Also do not forget that the training aircraft and flying schools at Cranfield, along with the instrument approach and navigation aids, contribute to a high standard of training for the student pilots that eventually go on to fly the airliners that most readers fly on out of Heathrow, Luton etc when going on holiday.

Highlighting adoption

SIR - St Francis' Children's Society would like to take the opportunity to thank MK News for their article on Adoption Week 2011 ('Call for more 'forever families' for children', MK NEWS, October 19).

Your coverage, alongside the adoption focus within parliament, was vital to us attracting record numbers of potential adopters to this month's information event. As the region's sole independent provider of adoption services, this was a fantastic turnout.

The couples and individuals we met were taking the first step to provide a loving 'forever family' to one of the 4,000 children currently waiting to be adopted. We were also heartened to received inquiries from those interested in adopting a child with a disability.

St Francis' doors are open year round to singles and couples of any background to come and chat about adoption with us.

Our next information event is on Wednesday from 6.30-8pm at our welcoming offices in Woolstone, Milton Keynes.

If you would like to find out more about adoption call us on 01908 572700, or check our website at www.sfcs.org.uk.

Your comments on our stories

Post your thoughts online at www.mk-news.co.uk

Regarding the story on your website 'Amateur boxer assaulted'. What on earth is going on in Milton Keynes at the moment? For the past 18 months all I read about are muggings, attacks, robberies and sex assaults that happen during broad daylight and in the evenings. Anyone with any sense would steer clear of the 'redways' and just drive everywhere - that's what MK builds its pride on, its roundabouts! But I would like to ask where all the police are as I never see any on foot patrol? Milton Keynes seems to be becoming an unfavourable place to live and not very safe at all.

Sent by e-mail

With reference to your article 'Fight to turn a troubled estate into safe haven (MK NEWS, November 23). The idea sounds good, but while the authorities seem to put a token presence on the estate until the dust settles then nothing will not change. Zero tolerance is the way forward and to keep it up until what was a nice place to live is restored to its former glory.

Boat building was a big business in the city

LANDLOCKED Milton Keynes is probably the last place you'd expect to find one of Britain's largest dry-docks.

But a new housing development - Hayes Mews - just south of Stony Stratford High Street, hides a watery secret with links to the doomed Titanic.

It was the late 1840s when consultant engineer Edward Hayes opened a small foundry and forge called Watling Works in Stony, developing mechanical equipment for agricultural use.

But over the next 20 years, Edward Hayes senior, and his son Edward junior identified a gap in the market and turned their hand to developing marine engines before moving into lucrative boat building.

At its peak, the Hayes Boat Yard was employing 80 people. It had a first-class reputation around the world for its steam engines and an apprenticeship scheme, which was the envy of the industry.

The scheme produced some great and talented engineers and legend has it, one went onto work on the ill-fated Titanic project.

The company went onto build steam boats, tugs and ocean-going vessels, in a giant boat yard dug by hand just off the London Road. As its reputation grew, boats were exported around the world and customers included the Russian and Egyptian governments along with the British Admiralty.

Once assembled, the boats were taken along the High Street, towed by huge steam engines, and up to the Hayes Wharf in Old Stratford, where they were launched - sideways - into the Grand Junction Canal and floated down to London and beyond.

Edward Hayes junior died in 1917, and his son three years later. Boat building continued until 1925, before the yard finally closed, bringing to an end the most unlikely industry you could expect at the furthest point from the sea in Britain.

Nowadays the dock has been filled in, creating what locals describe as a boggy quicksand at the rear of the new development, close to the London Road allotments.

Schools to close for strike action

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

MORE than 20 schools are expected to be closed today as teachers joined a national strike over pay and pension.

Hundreds of teaching staff across the city joined public sector workers to oppose Government plans to make them work longer and pay more for their pensions.

The strikes were expected to be the biggest in more than 30 years, with local authority, civil service and NHS staff also taking industrial action.

Graham Hussey, Milton Keynes National Union of Teachers (NUT) secretary, said: "These strikes are all about the pension funds.

"This is a cynical attack by the Government to decrease the deficit by stealing our money.

"As it currently stands, the teachers pensions fund is sustained and solely paid for by contributions by the teachers.

"All schools will be affected by the strikes in some way.

Frank Reedy, chairman of Milton Keynes Unison branch said: "It has not been an easy decision to go on strike but we cannot stand by and see public sector pensions reduced needlessly and unfairly. They are hardly gold-plated; the average pension for a woman working for your council will be just £2,800 a year.

"The public and private sector must stand together to stop the Government driving a wedge between them with twisted reasoning.

"Everyone deserves a decent pension, including workers in the private sector." But MP Iain Stewart has spoken out against the strikes.

He said: "The Government has put a new and generous offer on the table and this is still being negotiated.

"I think the strike is premature in light of this."

Theatre card giveaway

JUST in time for panto season, Milton Keynes Theatre's operator ATG is launching the UK's biggest theatre membership scheme.

The ATG Theatre Card will allow theatre-goers to buy priority tickets and access ticket offers.

To celebrate, MK NEWS is running an exclusive competition to win 25 of the cards.

See page 43 for details.

Man denies murder

A 32-YEAR-OLD man has denied murdering a man found with stab injuries.

David Law, 33, died in hospital after an incident at his home in Lichfield Down, Walnut Tree, on September 5.

Suresh Nahar, of Gurnards Avenue, Milton Keynes, appeared before Luton Crown Court via video link from Woodhill Prison.

He pleaded not guilty to the murder charge and the case was adjourned for a hearing at the same court on December 19.

Donate a blanket

DONATE a Blanket campaign has been launched to give older people a little extra warmth this winter.

The Webber Independent School and Age UK (Milton Keynes) are working together to encourage you donate one blanket.

The scheme started last week and will continue throughout the winter and into the New Year, donated blankets will be taken to sheltered homes with any extras sold in Age UK shops.

To donate just visit reception at The Webber Independent School on Soskin Drive, Stantonbury Fields between the hours of 9am and 4pm.

Extra signs in city car park

THE operator of the car park outside John Lewis in the city centre has announced it will be putting up more signs.

MK NEWS has received several complaints from disabled motorists who have been given a ticket after parking there.

Charges for the car park were enforced in the summer, after previously being free to all motorists.

But those who have complained to this paper claim they thought parking would continue to be free for blue disabled badge holders, as it is in other parts of the city.

On October 16, MK NEWS printed a letter by Linda Chestney complaining about the new charges for disabled customers.

At the time, Andrew Berarey. business manager for operator NCP, said the policy is to charge all customers, and that preferential parking bays are provided for those who are disabled.

Another customer, John Stanway from Bletchley, received a fine after thinking he would be able to park there for free.

He said: "It certainly needs to be signposted there, to say disabled parking has to be paid for."

But now more signs are to be provided at the car park to outline NCP's policy.

An NCP spokesman said: "We have reviewed our signs in these car parks, and although we feel that there is adequate signage on display, we have now added extra laminated signs which will hopefully avoid confusion regarding the charging policy on these sites."

Algae warning issued at lake

LAKE users and dog walkers in the city are being advised to stay out of the water this week due to the presence of blue-green algae.

The Environment Agency has confirmed the algae is present in north and south Caldecotte lake.

The algae blooms, which can be harmful to both people and animals, usually occur in still ponds in warm weather, but due to mild conditions this month have formed in the lakes.

Blue-green algae produces toxins and anyone coming into contact with it should seek medical advice. Dog walkers are advised to keep their dogs out of the water.

Excess nutrients cause the blooms when an increase in the number of algae leads it to rise to the surface.

Blooms can look like paint, jelly or form small clumps and may be blue-green, grey-green, greenish-brown or reddish brown in colour.

Rob Riekie, head of operations at The Parks Trust, said: "As the autumn has been very mild with little rain or water movement nutrients have surfaced and algal blooms developed.

"The Parks Trust and the Environment Agency are monitoring the situation.

"Normally the blooms will be dispersed by heavy rain and high winds and so we're hopeful that conditions at the lake will change very quickly over the next few days.

"If anyone is concerned about the condition of the lake further information can be found on our website www.theparkstrust.com or from the Environment Agency."

Help postmen deliver your presents on time

ROYAL Mail is gearing up to deliver an expected Christmas mailbag of around 162million items across the region.

More than 12,400 Royal Mail postal staff, supported by an extra 2,859 seasonal workers, will be working round the clock to collect, sort and deliver festive cards, letters and parcels.

The Christmas operation will involve an additional 320 vehicles on top of the normal 3,500-strong transport fleet in the Thames Valley area.

There are also almost 26,000 postboxes to post Christmas cards.

During the Christmas period last year, the company was heavily criticised by customers in Milton Keynes after the heavy snow, combined with a change in systems at the Brinklow sorting office, meant letters and parcels were delivered late. Mark Ellis, Royal Mail regional operations director for Thames Valley said: "As we do every year, we encourage people to post early and order presents early to help us spread the workload of handling around two billion items in the run-up to Christmas."

Customers are being encouraged to take a few steps, including posting early, using a clear postcode, using Special Delivery for valuable packages and parcels, and using Parcelforce Worldwide's Express services.

The last posting dates this year are on Tuesday, December 20 for First Class items, Saturday, December 17 for Second Class, Thursday, December 22 for Special Delivery, and Monday, December 12 for airmail items to Western Europe.

Bob will get his kicks on the A68

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

IT HAD always been a lifelong dream for Bob to ride Route 66 on a motorbike.

But instead the 67-year-old is settling for the A68 on his pushbike when his next birthday comes around.

Bob Seaman, of Walnut Tree, had always hoped he would be able to hit the most famous highway in the world, spanning America, to celebrate his 66th birthday.

But last year when finally the opportunity arose, a lack of funds prevented him from doing just that.

So now he plans on cycling the A66, A67 and A68 to make up for it - all in the name of charity - for his 68th birthday in August 2012.

And in keeping with his original birthday plan, he will turn 68 on the day he reaches the road with the same number.

Bob said: "Riding Route 66 has always been one of those secret ambitions. It had always been in my mind, since The Rolling Stones covered the song in about 1966.

"I'd seen a couple of documentaries about people who had done it. Open any motorcycle magazine and there are people doing guided tours.

"I would have liked to have done it the same way as Jools Holland, on a Vincent 1,000cc - it's the bike I want. I could still do it if I win the lottery, but it won't be on my 66th birthday.

"I was listening to the radio one morning and I heard them mention the A67, and wondered if it connected to the A68, which it does.

"So I'm going to start the A66 in Cockermouth, but I'm doing it on the pushbike - it would be dead easy on a motorbike.

"It's about 200 miles in total - I'll start the A66 on August 7, and when I get on the A68 on August 9, that's my 68th birthday."

Bob estimates the ride will take him around five days to complete, from his starting point in Cumbria to Edinburgh. He will be raising funds for MK City Colts FC, Seafarers, Help for Heroes, and the Unite Anfield Award.

Two new engines go 'on the run' in Milton Keynes

TWO new fire engines have gone into service – or 'on the run' - in the city.

One is based at Bletchley Fire Station and the other at Broughton.

The nine-litre Scania P280 Rescue Pumps are packed with the latest firefighting and rescue equipment, bringing the total cost to more than £250,000 each.

Features include compressed air foam systems, 100-metre hose reels, improved first aid and oxygen therapy kits and new stabilisation kits for use at road traffic collisions.

Mick Osborne, head of service delivery in Milton Keynes, said: "The decision was taken several years ago to move towards a standardised fleet of state-of-the-art appliances carrying top-quality equipment.

"When matched with the highly-trained and dedicated staff who crew them, it adds up to a first-rate service delivered to our local communities.

"This significant investment is a measure of Buckinghamshire and Milton Keynes Fire Authority's commitment to the safety of our firefighters and the people we serve."

Keeping warm: Cave is already being put to use

Public can now enter the Cave

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE city's latest public artwork was unveiled on Saturday evening.

The Cave, a concrete sculpture which nestles into the hillside of Campbell Park's Belvedere, was commissioned by MK Gallery in collaboration with The Parks Trust.

The piece, a man-made feature originally formed from city centre building spoil, was unveiled by its internationally-acclaimed artists Heather and Ivan Morison.

It was cast on-site from black-pigmented concrete, made up of three large slabs, which appear to have fallen together to form a shelter.

The concrete surface of the structure bears the marks of the burnt timber shuttering used to form it.

Inside an iron stool, again cast from timber, sits beside a blackened circular depression, and firewood is left in the back corner.

The secluded spot, just below the peak of the Belvedere, offers expansive views of the surrounding Buckinghamshire and Bedfordshire countryside - perfect to rest weary feet during a long walk.

Cave is a permanent commission, and open to visitors to Campbell Park all year.

Worries over city bridge proposals

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

CONCERNS over a potential development in the city centre are being raised by some of those who could be affected.

Last week MK NEWS revealed the owners of thecentre:mk are considering applying for planning permission for two new retail buildings in the city centre.

The £30million plan is expected to bring 400 jobs to the centre.

This could see the demolition of part of Secklow Gate bridge, which Milton Keynes Council spent thousands of pounds propping up in a delayed 18-month closure following a fire.

It could also mean the open-air market will be moved to another location.

Stephen Hobbs, owner of Crazy About Books at the market for 18 years, 'can't believe' the centre is considering an application.

He said: "In Milton Keynes you are either central or nowhere - move us half a mile anywhere and we will be dead. Three hundred yards away might as well be three miles, and that worries us."

Sustainable development lobby group Urban Eden is also unhappy at the potential development.

Worried: Market trader Stephen Hobbs

Chairman Theo Chalmers said such a move would draw an 'iron curtain' across the city centre.

He said: "Why would we want to lose one of our major grid roads, especially when we've fought so long and hard to get it reopened?"

Jonathan Weymouth, development director at thecentre:mk, said there are no plans to close the market, and is asking people to have their say at a public exhibition in the centre from 2pm on Friday.

He added: "We expect the new location for the market to offer an increase in efficiency and amenities for both market traders and members of the public.

"The proposals dramatically improve connections between thecentre:mk, the Theatre District and the remainder of Central Milton Keynes. Once again, we want everyone to have their say about our proposals."

Just One Click to better health care

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW health initiative could help the city's doctors save time and money with the simple click of a mouse.

The brains behind GP One Click - which is being piloted in the city - also hope that patients will receive better care thanks to the service.

Doctors will be able to steer people in the direction of groups and organisations which could provide much needed treatment for specific health problems.

These 'pastoral prescriptions' will range from counselling to sports provision and can be brought up quickly and easily on the doctor's computer.

City-based social enterprise Visual Revolution CIC has launched the initiative and hopes health professionals in the city will sign up to use it.

Managing director Gillon Quinn said: "A patient could go to their GP and say they are stressed but don't want pills, and they might get told to do more exercise.

"That person will keep coming back and every seven minute appointment with a doctor costs £27. With this web portal you can enter in basic non-confidential information, such as the patient enjoying art, and it could be that Age UK offers art classes."

Mr Quinn added that the project was born out of a passion for social enterprises and the health sector, and said no money would be made from the scheme.

Doctors will pay a subscription but Mr Quinn said this would be small compared to other costs. There were over 200,000 GP appointments in Milton Keynes last year and doctors pay millions on prescription drugs," he said.

Battle is on to keep Tesco out

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@mk-news.co.uk

WOBURN Sands Town Council will fight Tesco's plans to move into the High Street.

The authority has joined forces with the Woburn Sands Business and Community Association (WSBCA) after a meeting with representatives from the supermarket, who confirmed that they want to open a Tesco Express on the site of Chinese restaurant Woburn Zens.

The supermarket admitted it would need to seek planning permission for alterations to the rear of the property and car parking at the High Street end of Downham Road to allow access for their delivery vehicles.

A strong lobby of opinion has been voiced against the proposal, with over 1,000 people adding their names to online and paper petitions.

A council statement read: 'The town council has voted to support the actions of the WSBCA in objecting to Tesco's proposals to move into the High Street. The town council and business association will now work together to do what we can to prevent Tesco from opening up at Woburn Zens, since this view seems to reflect the views of a large majority of the population.'

Councillor David Hopkins, who chaired the meeting with the supermarket, said "There is an awful lot of concern that having a Tesco Express on the High Street will negatively affect the independent retailers.

"The town council is representing these views on behalf of the residents."

Simon Petar, Tesco regional corporate affairs manager said: "Our Express stores are extremely popular with customers.

"The proposed store will create approximately 20-30 jobs.

"We look forward to continuing to discuss our proposal with the local community in the weeks ahead.

"We believe the store will add additional choice and value to Woburn Sands."

Chaired meeting: Cllr David Hopkins

Council appeals HiMO law ruling

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

Challenged: A street in Fishermead with HiMOs

LEGAL eyes are on the city as Milton Keynes Council (MKC) launches an appeal in its challenge against new Government legislation.

On Wednesday MKC renewed its test case challenge against regulations introduced by housing minister Grant Shapps, which make it easier for landlords to rent their properties out to multiple tenants.

The case is one with widespread implications for landlords throughout the country.

MKC is asking the Court of Appeal to rule the Government failed to properly consult local planning authorities before making the change, which it says makes it even harder to prevent Houses in Multiple Occupation (HiMOs), which can lead to additional traffic, crime and antisocial behaviour.

This is after a ruling in April in which a High Court judge rejected the council's initial judicial review challenge, along with Oxford and Newcastle City Councils, to the law which now allows residential homes to be converted to HiMOs without the need for planning permission.

MKC says it and residents have for many years suffered problems caused by the conversion of houses into HiMOs.

It says prior to the regulation changes it was able to exercise control by either refusing planning permission or granting permission subject to conditions, and by taking enforcement action against unauthorised HiMOs.

It says that, by making conversion to HiMOs a permitted development right as part of the changes, its ability to control HiMOs has been taken away.

The High Court judge ruled a 2010 consultation process by the Government was not unfair.

But MKC argues he made an error in categorising the consultation as little more than a 'last minute check' and so reached the wrong conclusion on the key question of whether it had been unfair and unreasonable.

It says the changes introduced are radical and impact on local planning authorities, and that they should have been consulted directly by the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government.

But local planning authorities were not invited to make representations, and the council says, while it did make representations late in the 2010 consultation, it was denied a full opportunity to do so.

Appeal Court judges Lord Justice Pill, Lady Justice Arden and Lord Justice McFarlane are expected to reserve their decision until December in order to give it in writing.

Pioneering academy

IN 2009, investigations into Gatehouse School revealed pupils had been subjected to three years of abuse.

Reports showed how boys at the special school were sometimes manhandled and locked in classrooms.

Now, a move to transform the school into the country's first sponsored special academy will help to further distance it from this chequered past.

The school, for boys (and girls in the future) aged 13 to 19 with behavioural, emotional and social difficulties, is set to close in its current form on March 31 next year, and will reopen the next day as the city's newest academy.

As an academy, the school will receive funding directly from the Department for Education, rather than through Milton Keynes Council.

Councillor Andy Dransfield, the cabinet member responsible for children and young people, said: "This radical innovation is an exciting point in the school's history and will lead to the highest standards of teaching, learning and achievement."

But how exactly will the two sponsors, a local secondary school and a FTSE 100 international service company, help to improve Gatehouse?

Main sponsor St Paul's Catholic School, in Leadenhall, says the heart of its proposal to get involved is based on the idea of the community in Milton Keynes taking on more responsibility to increase the life chances of its most vulnerable young people.

It plans to support and develop the senior management at the academy through initiatives including mentoring and peer support, develop teaching and learning, and help to develop an 'enhanced range of qualifications' at the school.

School is 'for the benefit of young people': Headmaster Michael Manley

LAST week it was announced a city school, which has a controversial past involving cases of abuse, would become the first academy in the country to cater for children with special education needs.
The future of Gatehouse School in Stantonbury, was secured by the 'radical' move which sees international firm Serco and St Paul's Catholic School become its sponsors. Reporter ADAM GRINSELL takes a look at what this means for the school.

aims to shake off the problems of the past

In return, St Paul's says this will help it to 'reflect and improve' on its own practice and give its staff the opportunity to play a role in supporting colleagues in another school, which in turn would aid their own professional development.

Michael Manley, headteacher at St Paul's, said: "We look forward to establishing another successful partnership for the benefit of young people in Milton Keynes."

The other sponsor, Serco, is perhaps better known in Milton Keynes for collecting the rubbish bins rather than helping to teach youngsters.

In fact, the company has more than 100,000 employees internationally, and as part of its vast portfolio works with more than 500 schools nationally.

It inspects around 8,000 schools on behalf of Ofsted across central England, provides improvement services to schools in Walsall, Halton, Warrington and parts of Lincolnshire, and employs more than 500 staff from education or teaching backgrounds.

The company says, over 11 years of working with mainstream and special schools, it has developed a 'depth of expertise' in supporting pupils with special educational needs and their families, and hopes to bring this to the table with Gatehouse.

More broadly, Serco will be able to bring skills and expertise from all areas of support services such as finance, HR and IT.

Chairman of governors Sandra Clarke said: "Working with sponsors St Paul's and Serco offers a great opportunity for Gatehouse to be transformed over the coming years into a highly successful school and change the lives of young people for the better.

"The staff, governors, parents and young people of Gatehouse are looking forward to working with the sponsors to strengthen links with other secondary schools and the community and develop a wide range of innovative solutions to support a significant number of vulnerable people."

Cars targeted by mystery slasher

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A SERIAL tyre slasher is targeting residents' cars on one estate - with 23 cars attacked in two incidents.

Between November 11 and 13, 14 cars - more than 20 tyres - were damaged in streets near the redway that runs between Stony Stratford and Fullers Slade, causing £1,000 of damage.

Roads in which vehicles were targeted include Moorfoot, Clailey Court, Creslow Court, Hale Avenue and Malletts Close.

That follows another incident overnight on the August Bank Holiday when nine vehicles were damaged in the same area.

One victim, who wanted to remain anonymous, said: "People are angry because it's costing a lot of money, which you can't afford at this time, coming up to Christmas.

"It's just needless violence, it beggars belief."

Thames Valley Police are now appealing for witnesses.

Sgt Lee Brace from the Stony Stratford neighbourhood team said: "I believe someone did this as they walked between Stony Stratford and Fullers Slade in the early hours of November 12 and 13. It appears that the person who did this used a screwdriver and just picked out vehicles at random, causing more than £1,000 of damage in just a few hours.

"As this is the second time the same area has been hit in a similar way I would ask people living in the area if they know of anyone living in this area who has been out on these dates and who they suspect of carrying a screwdriver to call me. This has caused a lot of people a lot of distress, inconvenience and expense in the run-up to Christmas and we need to bring the person who did this to justice."

Anyone with information should contact Sgt Brace on the Force non-emergency number 101 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Right: Lee Evans gives a reading of his new autobiography. Bottom: Some fans queued for four hours to see the comedian

Big queue to see Lee

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

HUNDREDS of people queued for four hours on Friday morning to meet funny man Lee Evans.

The internationally-acclaimed stand-up comic and movie star was in Milton Keynes to sign copies of his new book, Lee Evans: The Life of Lee.

The There's Something About Mary star turned up at Waterstone's in Midsummer Place, and die-hard fans were queuing from before 8am in the morning to catch a glimpse of him. People eventually were even having to be turned away, as the queue became too long.

His new hilarious and very moving autobiography, charting his ups and downs on the way to the top, is already tipped to be one of the favourite titles for Christmas shoppers.

In it Lee takes readers on a darkly humorous journey through his childhood spent running wild on a Bristol housing estate, and his unconventional school days when he was publicly derided as 'a failure' by a teacher.

A Friend in need at city's hospice

Plea: The Friends of Willen Hospice

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

FEARS have been raised that an important fundraising body could be lost if more members are not found.

The Friends of Willen Hospice has been raising money for the end-of-life care facility since before it was founded 21 years ago, helping to buy the current building before it was registered as a charity.

Now the group, which raises about £100,000 every year, may have to disband if more 'new blood' is not found to sit on its management committee.

Hospice chief executive Paul Hinson said: "Losing the friends would be a great tragedy.

"They have contributed more than £1.5million in addition to many items that have helped to improve the service we provide, including the digital televisions in patients' rooms.

"Each year the hospice has to raise more than £4million. We consider the role played by the friends as vital to the life of the hospice and hope the people of Milton Keynes will come forward to support them."

The group is now holding an open evening at the hospice on December 8 for people to find out who they are.

Christine Rowat, one of the current nine committee members, said: "Like a lot of charities we are not getting people coming forward to help on the committee.

"We need some extra people for the committee, because to be honest some of us are running out of steam - we need new blood, people with new ideas, people who want to be actively involved."

Ms Rowat said it is down to the individual to decide what they can and cannot do, and hours can be fitted in around other commitments.

If you want to find out more, visit the open evening at 6.30pm, or if you can't make it call Jacqui Flint on 01908 663636.

LUTON BOROUGH COUNCIL

OAPs' door gaps to be finally sorted out

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A STREET of pensioners are looking forward to a warm winter after Milton Keynes Council agreed to fit the 'missing' front and back doors on their properties.

The authority replaced the windows on bungalows in Selkirk Grove, but failed to install new doors, leaving the homes cold and draughty.

The residents started a petition and called on councillors Mick Legg and Nigel Long, who supported their appeal.

Joyce Millar, 73, of Selkirk Grove, said she was delighted by the decision.

She said: "This problem has been going on for a long time

"I know people that have bought draft excluders and put pillows around the doors to try and stop the cold.

"I've even resorted to buying thermal curtains.

"We were worried about how much our heating bills were going to cost this winter with prices going up, so it's given us all peace of mind."

Cllr Mick Legg said: "I was approached by the residents of Selkirk Grove because the draughts from the doors were getting worse and simply replacing them would go a long way to resolving the problems."

It is hoped that the doors will be in place by early December.

Windows on houses in the road were initially replaced after the originals were found to be no longer fit for purpose.

Installed in the 1960s, replacement parts for the single-glazed windows had become obsolete and the thin glass had been blamed for health problems and high heating bills.

A spokesman for Milton Keynes Council said: "We have been in close contact with Cllr Legg over this issue. We expect to complete work at approximately 30 properties in the coming weeks."

Festive season kicks off

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

CHRISTMAS has well and truly arrived in Bletchley this year.

On Saturday night, popstar Gareth Gates and West End leading lady Nicola Brazil paid a visit to help Santa switch on the town's lights, along with lucky George Ashby, who was picked out of the crowd.

Gareth and Nicola are appearing in Milton Keynes Theatre's panto Aladdin, which is being supported by MK NEWS.

Then on Monday, MK Dons 'keeper David Martin put his window shopping skills to good use by helping Bletchley and Fenny Stratford Town Council pick out the best display in town.

The winner was Ramsbotham Florists, with Linda's Sweets and Carousel grabbing the runner's up spots.

A town council spokesman said: "Together with local businesses we organised the best Christmas window display competition.

"Many shops and businesses along Queensway entered into the Christmas spirit and decorated their windows.

"It was a difficult decision with so many fantastic displays, but we are pleased to announce Ramsbotham Florists were the well deserved winners."

Controversial trees saga coming to end

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

LANDSCAPING work that had people in tears earlier in the year is now being finished off in the city centre.

In March, MK NEWS reported how a large leylandii at the junction of Silbury Boulevard and Saxon Gate had been cut down to make way for new landscaping.

But Central Milton Keynes (CMK) Town Council quickly put a stop to the works after receiving a call from a tearful member of the public, claiming it had not agreed to have the tree removed.

Now Milton Keynes Council has a new planting scheme in place, and work has already been carried out to chop down the other three evergreens on the junction.

CMK Town councillor Ken Baker said: "People were rightly upset when the borough council chopped down a magnificent evergreen tree.

"After several meetings to redress the problem, we're pleased that the council's landscaping team have come up with an attractive new planting scheme."

Semi-mature hornbeams will replace the leylandii, and once those are in position other shrubs and plants already being used in the city centre will be planted.

The new landscaping will be accompanied by signage to inform the public of the work being done, and who is doing it.

Cllr Baker added: "In many cities underpasses are bleak and threatening places. But the original architects of CMK avoided those pitfalls by designing light, shallow underpasses with plenty of greenery.

"Lots of pedestrians use this area as a gateway to the shopping centre, and the new planting scheme should make a pleasant approach to the Grade II listed building at the heart of our city centre."

Top prize: Kiran Flynn, from New Bradwell

Journalism award is scooped by MK student

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A DEBUT foray into journalism scooped a Milton Keynes student first place in a nationwide competition.

Kiran Flynn, from New Bradwell, had never even tried her hand at reporting before entering the national newspapers contest.

Yet she secured her first foreign assignment to cover child marriage in Bangladesh with children's charity Plan International - and came out top.

"I believe early marriage deserves special attention as it is an under-reported form of abuse," said Kiran, 20, who attended Stantonbury Campus as a teenager.

"My article focused on a young girl in rural Bangladesh who was forced into wedlock at the age of 12.

"I explored the consequences on her life, as well as the wider issues internationally and in the UK."

The competition, sponsored by GlaxoSmithKline and Barclays, aims to raise awareness of crucial international issues, often overlooked by mainstream media.

Kiran was shortlisted from more than 400 entrants, then flown to Bangladesh to research her final piece.

"The highlight of the trip was meeting young people who are campaigning against child marriage," said Kiran, who is now in her second year studying History at SOAS (School of Oriental and African Studies) in London.

"Talking to children who want to make a difference in their community was so motivating."

"Child marriage is one of the biggest development issues of our time," said Marie Staunton, chief executive of Plan UK.

"Kiran's article has helped mobilise support for our Take the Vow petition, which is asking the Government to take action on this matter."

Ready to give it a go: MK City Colts under sevens players get in training for weekend record attempt

Kids looking to score with world record bid

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

A GROUP of young footballers are hoping that their silky skills will earn them a place in the Guinness Book of Records.

The soccer stars of Milton Keynes City Colts U7s will aim to touch the ball an incredible 100,000 times between them at The Hub on Saturday.

Each of the 28 boys taking part will have a ball at their feet and organisers hope that the achievement could be a global first.

They are waiting to hear back from Guinness to see if they could enter the famous book.

Coach Darren Keeble said: "Some of the boys have played with Leicester City and can do about 50 touches in 30 seconds.

"It just started as an idea of craziness really.

"We thought we've got a certain number of players so let's see what we can do.

"We expect the day to be a great advertisement for the development of youth football in the community."

An army of volunteers will equip themselves with counters so the number of touches can be tallied up, and the boys will take part in five minutes shifts with skills such as the toe-tap and step-over on show.

It is also hoped that valuable cash can be raised for good causes, with half going to the club and the other half going to Willen Hospice.

MK Dons chairman Pete Winkelman has been lined up to attend and the club, who train at Woughton Leisure Centre, also hope to welcome Olympic athlete Kriss Akabusi although he has not been confirmed.

The action will start at 10am.

WINTER MOTORING

The colder months of the year can take their toll on your car. But a few simple preventative measures will keep your car looking good and protect it from the ice and slush. Taking the time to perform winter car maintenance brings you one step closer to being prepared for the falling temperature and snow.

Things to check

Windshield wipers. Check windshield wipers blades and replace the blade if it streaks or if over 1 year old.

Tyres. Check tires for wearing, balding or alignment issues. Check tire pressure at least once a month. Improperly inflated tires can reduce gripping when you need it the most.

Lights. Check to make sure all lights are in working condition. With lower visibility in the winter, you want to make sure other drivers can see you.

Brake pads and shoes. Replace worn pads and have your brakes professionally inspected ensures immediate response in icy or slippery situations.

Top off your fluids: engine coolants, power steering, brake, radiator, windshield washer and battery fluids. Check your owner's manual or antifreeze container for specifications. Use winter windshield washer antifreeze

Petrol: Keep the tank at least half full. This helps reduce moisture problems in the fuel system.

Oil. Get an oil and filter change, recommended at every 3,000 miles.

Battery. The cold temperature increases the battery workload and can take a toll. If your car cranks slowly when you start it, have the battery checked.

Here are some local companies that can make sure you car is in tip top condition and ready for the winter months ahead.

Valerie and club net sports gongs

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

TWO city winners have picked up awards at a ceremony held to honour the county's sporting heroes.

The City of Milton Keynes Swimming Club was named as club as the year at the Bucks Sports Awards and Valerie Symon, a retired PE teacher from Woburn Sands, won the Unsung Hero prize.

Nominated individuals and clubs who have made an outstanding contribution to sport came together at Horwood House for the ceremony on Friday when nine awards were up for grabs.

Swimming club chairman Ian Ashley paid tribute to the large number of volunteers, including head coach Greg Buck and assistant head coach Lisa Salmon, who have put in hours of hard work over the past year.

He said: "Just being shortlisted for the award was an achievement itself, but we are overjoyed to win it.

"It's fantastic as we've had quite a few issues that have made it hard for us to put on swimming meets, but this makes all of the work we have put in worthwhile."

The club got the nod for the award as this year it has achieved Swim 21 accreditation - given only to those who create the best possible swim experience for all - and has also set up its Academy for novice swimmers.

Valerie has been helping young people involve themselves in sport for 40 years and the number of people she has helped is estimated to be in the thousands, through schools, guides and local clubs.

She has fulfilled every role possible, including coach, umpire and even minibus driver.

Special guests including Olympic champion rower Zac Purchase helped to present the awards.

Presentation: Lucie Maldoom (representing award sponsor Community Impact Bucks), Ian Ashley (Chairman of City of MK Swimming Club), and Olympic gold medal winning rower Zac Purchase MBE.

Strictly's Camilla is set to make dreams come true

BY JUDY RILEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

CAMILLA Dallerup looks like no genie I've ever seen before.

Green, male and appearing in a puff of smoke are the more usual characteristics of the magical spirit who has somehow got itself trapped inside a dirty, old oil lamp.

But the Strictly Come Dancing professional will soon be magically transformed to grant the all-important three wishes on the opening night of this year's panto, Aladdin, at Milton Keynes Theatre, supported by MK NEWS.

"I've never done panto before," said Danish-born dancer Camilla. "But my husband (Hollyoaks actor Kevin Sacre) normally stars in one and I love it - all that singing, dancing and acting. It's fabulous fun."

Camilla is currently appearing as beautician Elaine in the UK tour of Calendar Girls and having a lot of fun with that role, too - though she's not a month 'Miss' and therefore doesn't have to get her kit off.

That almost did happen, however, quite accidentally when she was appearing with former partner Brendan Cole onstage in Japan in front of 3,000 people.

She said: "That was the worst thing that has ever happened to me on stage. Brendan got his hand caught in my bra cup and as I twirled away I accidentally flashed my boob.

"When the dance finished the presenter said, in this leery kind of voice, 'very sexy'."

Whatever Camilla ends up wearing as the Aladdin genie it probably won't be as tricky to perform in as the skirt she wore when she and Tom Chambers became the 2008 Strictly Champions.

She added: "I had already worn this skirt in the heats which was amazing but incredibly heavy. For the final, they wanted to make it extra special so they added all these frills and material.

"I did my first twirl and landed - and then the skirt arrived. It was so heavy it almost knocked me over. But I do love dressing up and looking glamorous."

You can catch Camilla as the genie from the opening night, December 9, until December 20, at which point flamboyant astrologer Russell Grant takes over the role.

Camilla will be back for the last week of performances and though Strictly on TV will be over for another year by then, at MK Theatre, there will still be top marks for the genie-us casting all round.

Star backing for Alex's anti-bullying campaign

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A FORMER city student has marked Anti-Bullying Week by organising a huge conference in London which was attended by 400 people from across the UK.

Twenty-three-year-old Alex Holmes, originally from Stony Stratford, has just started as anti-bullying programme manager for The Diana Award, established in memory of Diana, Princess of Wales, as a legacy to her belief in the power of young people to change the world.

He even managed to secure the support of pop royalty - Nicola Roberts from Girls Aloud also attended, and supports his campaign.

The event was organised to highlight the work of 2,000 young Diana Award Anti-Bullying Ambassadors, which work in 300 schools across the country as part of a programme run by Alex and funded by the Department for Education.

He said: 'The anti-bullying conference shone a light on hundreds of young people who are engaged in anti-bullying work.

"Young people spend an average of 11,000 hours of their lives in full-time education, and it is vital every one of these hours is a happy and safe one, free from bullying.

"Not only are these ambassadors shaping their school, their community but also the world around them."

The ambassadors engage in a variety of preventative work from drop-in support sessions, anti-bullying patrols around their playground to Smile and Compliment days - they make it their mission to tackle bullying, receiving support and training along the way.

Alex would like to hear from any schools keen to be part of the national project. They can e-mail him at antibullying.ambassador@diana-award.org.uk.

Dough-n't miss the new-look store

LOVERS of Homer Simpson's favourite snack are in for a real treat after the city's only specialist doughnut store got a £100,000 makeover.

On Thursday, staff at Krispy Kreme in thecentre:mk were celebrating opening the flash new diner with the mayor, players from MK Lions and MK Lightning and other city dignitaries. Then on Friday, the store was officially opened with a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

The first customer then received a special 'gold' card, which entitles them to a year's worth of doughnuts for free. Events continued throughout the weekend, with in-store offers and gifts.

Store manager Bob Watson said: "It's a much better atmosphere in here, much more comfortable fittings and seats, but still the same best product."

Bradwell Abbey internet specialist Web Control has gathered a panel of industry experts together and launched a competition to find the best business ideas in the area for investment.

Based on the popular investment-based BBC programme Dragons' Den, the chosen ideas will be given an online presence and expert consultancy to ultimately take their business forward.

Ideas can be anything from a bike shop which wants to increase its web presence, or a new Facebook application that needs to be developed.

Director of Web Control, David Marshall, said: "Milton Keynes is a young, vibrant city that has grown up alongside emerging internet technologies.

"Small businesses to international blue-chip companies have made Milton Keynes their home, the area has become a hotbed for entrepreneurs and talented individuals.

"Unfortunately not every person has access to costly resources or the skill set required to turn a concept into success.

"With this exciting and fun competition we can combine the right idea, personnel and skills to create a highly profitable business

"It is a great opportunity."

Over the last decade Web Control has witnessed the internet become a seamless part of everyday life.

Home computers, mobile devices and games consoles are now internet enabled, and soon the company says kitchen appliances, cars and televisions will all be interacting via the world wide web.

This, the firm claims, will create a whole host of new opportunities in an industry which is still only in its infancy.

If you are running a business that you think could blossom given the right investment, go to www.thelionslair.co.uk now for further details and to enter.

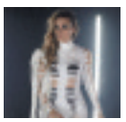
LEVELS
Avicii
HOW many boxes does this tick on the Dance Single Formula checklist? Let's see if we can find out (presses Play).

To be fair the vocals only make a cameo appearance, which makes a nice change from rabbiting on and on throughout the entire song, so points awarded for that.

However, everything else about this song is utterly predictable, right down to the ending, which ends with the beat carrying on for a while without any accompaniment before stopping dead at the appropriate moment.

A FOREST
Jess Mills
I KNOW the chances of it happening would've been zero, but if The Cure hadn't recorded A Forest and instead gave it to someone like OMD, Visage or Giorgio Moroder back in 1980 something like this could've been the result instead.



Now, that might initially seem like a really bad idea, but this is minimalist, electronic and, in its own way, just as spooky as the original.

Although it's still recognisable, it's a very, very different beast to the original and very nearly as good. That's no mean feat.

BOOK LAUNCH

A POPULAR book which charts the city's early years is now back on the shelves after selling out its first two print runs.

Three Curly Wurlys and 106 Roundabouts, by Lee Scriven and produced in conjunction with the City Discovery Centre, was first released on the city's official 40th birthday on January 23, 2007.

Since then it has become one of the city's most popular local publications and it's now re-released to coincide with a film that will be screened at Cineworld in the new year.

Mr Scriven said: "I have to be honest and say I didn't really think the book would be so popular and it's been a big surprise, but a very nice one. I wasn't planning on publishing the book again until the city reached the ripe old age of 50, but I have had so many emails and requests for it from all over the world, I thought it might be nice to do so for MK's 45th birthday."

The redesigned book is littered with even more unseen pictures and new tales of what it was like to work, rest and play in Milton Keynes during the turbulent 70s.

It's a journey many shared in the decade, when Milton Keynes enticed thousands of new residents with the promise of living the dream in a space-age city, but as Mr Scriven explains, it was anything but.

"Just before we moved from London, my dad would bring home big glossy magazines full of pictures and artist impressions of the new city, showing a lifestyle and society only previously witnessed on Joe 90.

"When I arrived in the spring of 1974, there was only empty fields and streets full of mud, so the promised space-age city had far more in common with Joe Sugden."

The book's chapters give readers a real insight to the city's early culture and its aspirations that included monorails, heliports and a huge football stadium.

Only available at Waterstones, priced £19.99.

HENRY V

Until Saturday

THE tale of the greatest British warrior in English folklore.

In a time when nationalism is at its most dangerous and exciting, and increasing numbers of British servicemen and women are seeing active service, Propeller brings its own unique take on one of Shakespeare's most famous plays.

Thrilling and deeply moving, Henry V marks the beginning of a journey that takes us from the corridors of Westminster to the fields of France in an evening of unforgettable power.

COMPETITION

EARLIER this month, the Ambassador Theatre Group's (ATG) joint CEO and creative director Howard Panter and fellow joint CEO Rosemary Squire, were joined by Richard Fleeshman and Sharon D Clarke (Sam and Oda Mae Brown from Ghost the Musical) at London's Piccadilly Theatre to officially launch the new ATG Theatre Card - the UK's biggest theatre membership scheme.

And to mark the launch of the scheme, introduced this week at Milton Keynes Theatre with panto star Gareth Gates, pictured above, MK NEWS is giving away 25 of the cards to lucky readers.

The ATG Theatre Card is the first UK-wide theatre card, offering a range of benefits that customers can use in their local theatre, other ATG theatres in major cities (including ATG's West End venues) and tourist areas around the UK.

ATG Theatre Card benefits include priority tickets, ticket offers (including half price on selected shows), no booking or postage fees on most shows, priority brochure mailing, fee free ticket exchange, ten per cent savings on pre-show and interval drinks and free cloakroom.

The biggest bonus is that the exclusive card is accepted at 39 venues across the UK and in the West End.

Members will also have the chance to attend special events such as launch nights and Q&As with cast and creative teams.

The ATG Theatre Card costs £30 and allows customers to buy up to four tickets per show.

Karen Cody, ATG Theatre Card manager, said: "It is the perfect membership card to ensure customers get the seats they want, for the performance they want and at the price they want."

Mr Panter added: "The unique feature of the ATG Theatre Card is that it gives our loyal customers exclusive access to benefits and special offers across our entire portfolio of UK venues including 12 in the West End."

There is also one website address and one telephone number for all ATG Theatre Card members: www.atgtickets.com/theatrecard and 0844 871 7633.

To be in with a chance of winning an ATG Theatre Card, simply answer the following question:

Who helped to launch the card in Milton Keynes? To enter, e-mail competitions@mk-news.co.uk, or send a postcard with your name, address and daytime contact number to MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 0DU. Closing date is Wednesday, December 7. The editor's decision is final in all matters.

Also to celebrate the launch of the ATG Theatre Card, ATG is offering all members a free premium upgrade for Ghost the Musical to the best seats in the house for £65 (a £35 saving) and a complimentary CD of the Ghost the Musical original cast recording per booking.

Offer is valid for all performances of Ghost the Musical at the Piccadilly Theatre throughout December. Free CD offer is one per transaction and is subject to availability.

For full terms and conditions visit www.atgtickets.com/theatrecard.

Co-founded by Howard Panter and Rosemary Squire in 1992, the Ambassador Theatre Group Ltd is the largest owner/operator of theatres in the UK with 39 venues, an internationally recognised theatre producer and a leader in theatre ticketing services through ATG Tickets. Current and recent ATG co-productions include Ghost the Musical, South Pacific, Legally Blonde the Musical, Monty Python's Spamalot, The Misanthrope, West Side Story, Elling, Guys and Dolls, Sweeney Todd, Company, Exit the King and The Rocky Horror Show.

THE CONCRETE UNDERGROUND,

Friday

DANCE music returns to Milton Keynes as scene veterans Beatcheck present a new concept night, The Concrete Underground.

The event will see the Fatboy Slim-backed DJ Afghan Headspin and some of the brightest local underground talent bringing beats, breaks and basslines to the concrete city.

It is the first time in two years that Beatcheck has run a night, having attracted some of the biggest names in dance music and up to 1,000 guests to their regular MK outings between 2006-10. As well as some of the most progressive sounds in future dance music, the new night will see live dance music, underground-themed dance-offs and busking hobos keeping smokers entertained.

The night will be headlined by Afghan Headspin, aka Jason Bull. Signed to Fatboy Slim's Skint Records, he has a reputation for twisting and tearing basslines and searing lead lines.

In order to keep the night truly underground, entry is limited to those with invitations which you can get from www.beatcheck.co.uk. Free before 10.30pm, £5 before 11.30pm, and more after.

CENTRAL MILTON KEYNES PUB 300K MAKEOVER

Opens Monday 5th December

The Cricketers pub in Oldbrook has undergone a £300,000 refurbishment to become one of the first Greene King 'Meet & Eat, Pub & Grill' venues.

The family friendly pub has been revamped and now has a lot to offer its customers, Manager Chris Moor, said, 'Our Ethos will be no nonsense, great value food and Liquor'.

The new look pub will have something to offer all the family from live entertainment to poker or Bingo. Chris said, 'alongside the new entertainment we will also have an extensive menu with great family value based offers, in a nutshell we will still be retaining the values of a child friendly Greene King local pub'.

Chris took over The Cricketers when he moved from Newcastle to Milton Keynes and has spent the past 14 months building the business to a more sustainable position.

All the hard work has paid off and the pub has just been awarded 5 stars by the EHO for kitchen standards on their version of Scores on The Doors.

The pubs development will not only offer a new family venue but will also create job opportunities as the company looks set to double the size of their current team.

The pub will be reopening Monday 5th December and will be welcoming families to come and see what they have to offer.

Another year has come and gone,
Our love for you is just as strong,
The days and weeks go slowly by,
Time has passed but still we cry.
Nothing helps ease the pain,
And in our hearts you still remain,
You are the star that shines so clear,
So missed, so loved, forever dear.

COMPETITION

HO HO ho! SantaLand is open at Mead Open Farm and the man in the big red suit is joined by his little helpers with lots of Christmas activities for you to enjoy.

You can take a magical journey to Lapland and back on the Lapland Express, an animated reindeer ride, stroll through the Winter Wonderland, write to Santa in the Elves' Workshed and for all little explorers, there is the Reindeer Trail with treats to win and so much more to do.

Father Christmas is taking up residence every day in his very own grotto right up until December 23, before he has to leave to help get the presents ready for the big day.

And with the help of Mead Open Farm's animals, a Nativity Cam will be available for you to watch each day until December 23, simply by visiting www.meadopenfarm.co.uk.

A ticket to SantaLand is great value at £10.50, including full entry to Mead Open Farm, all the animal activities and Shaggy's huge heated indoor PlayWorld, plus of course the golden ticket for a gift from Santa's toy shop.

MK NEWS has teamed up Santa, his cheeky elves and Mead Open Farm to give away eight sets of family tickets (two adults and two children), worth £35 each. For your chance to be a winner, answer this simple question:

What will Santa give you to exchange in his Toy Shop for a gift? a) bronze voucher b) silver badge c) golden ticket.

Send your entry, along with your name, address and contact details to competitions@mk-news.co.uk, or MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 0DU. The closing date is Wednesday, December 7. The editor's decision is final and the winners will be notified.

SantaLand at Mead Open Farm is just south of Leighton Buzzard. Visitors should follow the brown signs from the A505 or A4146.

For further information call 01525 852954, or visit www.meadopenfarm.co.uk.

XSCAPE, CMK

XSCAPE Milton Keynes has been transformed into a wonderful winter Wonderland and Christmas Extravaganza with festive fun for everyone.

Being the home of winter, with guaranteed real snow on the snow slope every day, there's nowhere else that can compare.

Throughout the festive period children can ride the free Santa Express train.

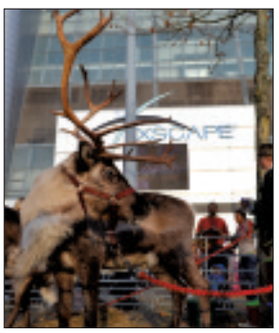
Meet it by the Log Cabin in the Xscape mall, and then it's all aboard for a fun ride around.

Children can also meet Santa for free in the log cabin and tell him what they want for Christmas. There will be loads of free family entertainment and art and craft workshops all Christmas long - and you can meet the resident talking moose.

Entertainment will run each weekend until Christmas and daily from December 12.

After Christmas the Express train and art and craft sessions will continue to run without Santa until January 8.

Get in the festive spirit at the home of winter. For more details of what's on, visit www.xscape.co.uk.



HEART FM COLUMN

BREAKFAST show presenters Stuart and Natalie wake you up each weekday morning on Heart FM and write to you each week in MK NEWS.

Legendary funny man John Cleese joined us on Heart Breakfast.

He is promoting the DVD of his Alimony Tour.

We asked him how he found being back on stage. John said: "I spent so long in television studios, for about 35 years, it's all I did.

"I started in theatre, but apart from the Amnesty and the Python shows, I hadn't been on stage in that long.

"I love the immediacy of theatre, because if you have a joke in a movie it's about two years later you discover if it's funny or not.

"On stage you find out straight away and the nice thing is you can fix it and change it and then the next night you might get more of a laugh.

"So it's like a comic experiment going on".

We asked whether he was a perfectionist when it came to recording the DVD.

John said: "Absolutely, you see movies you can redo bits, but on TV, like when we were doing Monty Python, we only had two hours to do the whole thing and if you are asked to do things again, everyone got worried and looked at their watches.

"I always felt I tightened up in the dress rehearsal and wished they could tape that."

In true Heart Breakfast style, we played a game with John called 'Cough up and Cough Out' - he loved it and you can hear it on our breakfast blog at www.heart.co.uk/fourcounties/on-air/breakfast/blog/breakfast-blog/.

You can also let us know whether you would like us to come and turn on your Christmas lights.

Just give us your reason and we'll pick one household as well as a runner-up, where we'll be sending producer Josh. All we ask for is a mince pie (Natalie likes hers warm).

Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast, Monday to Friday, from 6-10am on Heart 103.3 FM.

MILTON KEYNES, MUSEUM

A VICTORIAN CHRISTMAS

THE warmest of Christmas welcomes awaits visitors to Milton Keynes Museum, Wolverton, during the first three weekends in December.

Travel back in time more than 100 years when the residents and staff of the cottage and grounds entertained themselves in very different ways to that of the present day.

In the schoolroom, children's minds and imaginations are set free creating decorations and making cards.

Families can ride the shire-horse-led wagon through the courtyard (weather permitting). Keep the magic of Christmas alive and book a visit to see Father Christmas.

Music fills the streets as entertainers sing, play and recite the classics. The barn hosts market traders selling their handmade gifts and stocking fillers - the perfect place to stumble upon a special gift to put under your tree.

No era in time has influenced the way we celebrate Christmas quite so much as the Victorian. Learn why we decorate our homes with mistletoe, holly and ivy.

Why do we give gifts? Where does Santa Claus come from? Why do we have Christmas trees?

Accompanied with the spicy taste of mulled wine, the crackle of a log fire and the comforting aroma of roasting chestnuts, this experience is a delightful journey of discovery.

Scheduled for December 2 to 18, Fridays 4.30-7pm, Saturdays and Sundays 1.30-6pm.

Family tickets (two adults and four children) £16, adults £6, concessions £5. Father Christmas visits and a gift, £6 extra.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(FOOTPATH NUMBER 68, WOLVERTON (PART), WOLVERTON) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes, with the consent of Northamptonshire County Council, intends, in not less than seven days from the date of this notice, to make an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all access along that length of Footpath Number 68, Wolverton from its junction with Footpath Number RG14 at the Northamptonshire boundary to its junction with Footpath Number 120, Wolverton.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary closure is necessary because of the likelihood of danger to the public whilst refurbishment works are carried out on the Iron Trunk Aqueduct. It is anticipated the temporary closure will commence from Friday 9th December 2011 until Saturday 31st March 2012, inclusive.

The alternative route for north-west bound access from a point where Footpath number 68 Wolverton meets Footpath number 120 Wolverton will be to turn left and continue in a south-westerly direction along Footpath 120 Wolverton to its junction with Watermill Lane, then turn right and cross the River Great Ouse into Northamptonshire, continuing along Footpath Number RG7 to its junction with Footpath Number RG14 and vice versa.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order due to safety reasons.

The proposed Order will come into operation on Friday 9th December 2011 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 6 months or until the likelihood of danger to the public has ceased, which ever is the sooner. If the danger to the public persists up to the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(REDWAY (PART) ADJACENT TO THE H6 CHILDS WAY, WOOLSTONE) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has, on the 30th November 2011, made an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all access along that length of redway that runs alongside the south east side of the H6 Childs Way, adjacent to Woolstone. The closure will start from the H6 Childs Way bus stop situated west of Pattison Lane, Woolstone continuing in a westerly direction to the south-western side of the Grand Union canal bridge in Springfield.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary closure is necessary because of works being carried out, namely excavation works on the redway to investigate a leaking water main. It is anticipated the temporary closure will take place from Monday 5th December 2011 until Friday 30th December 2011, inclusive. The redway may open sooner if the works are completed ahead of schedule.

The restrictions will be in force on the dates and at the times shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs.

The alternative route for westbound access will be to turn left onto Pattison Lane, Woolstone and continue in a southerly direction to the redway adjacent to Rendlesham, Woolstone, then turn right onto the redway and continue in a westerly direction over the canal bridge and into Springfield, turn right onto the adjoining redway and continue in a north-westerly direction to the redway that runs alongside the H6 Childs Way and vice versa for eastbound access.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order.

The Order will come into operation on Monday 5th December 2011 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 6 months or until the works are completed, which ever is the sooner. If the works are not completed within the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(DRAYTON ROAD AND BARTON ROAD (PARTS), BLETCHLEY)
(TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

FURTHER NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that there has been a delay in the timescales originally envisaged and previously notified on the 23rd November 2011 for the temporary road closure taking place at Drayton Road, Bletchley detailed below. Therefore, the restrictions brought into effect under the provisions of the above Order made by the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes on the 23rd November 2011, under Section 14 (1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 will now take place during the dates and times stated below. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all vehicular access along the following lengths of road :-

Drayton Road, Bletchley from a point approximately 150 metres north of its junction with the A4146 to its junction with Lomond Drive, Bletchley. It is anticipated that this closure will now commence from 8.00am on Saturday 17th December 2011 until 3.00pm on Sunday 18th December 2011.

The alternative route for southbound traffic will be to proceed left onto Lomond Drive, then right onto Stoke Road, then right onto the A4146 and vice versa for northbound traffic.

Barton Road, Bletchley from the southern end of Barton Road at a point adjacent to number 32 Barton Road for a distance of approximately 110 metres in a northerly direction to its junction with the access road into Water Eaton Industrial Estate. It is anticipated that this closure will commence from 12.00 noon on Saturday 17th December 2011 until 8.00pm on Sunday 18th December 2011.

There will be no alternative route for traffic for this closure.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary closures are necessary because of the likelihood of danger to the public whilst a mobile crane is positioned on site in order to enable the delivery of signalling structures into position on the railway infrastructure.

The temporary restrictions will be in force on the dates and at the times shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order.

The Order came into operation on Saturday the 26th November 2011 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 18 months or until the likelihood of danger to the public has been alleviated, which ever is the sooner. If the danger remains up to the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

MK SUNDAY LEAGUE

AFC Santander went through to round four of the Berks and Bucks Junior Cup with a 4-2 win over Loughton Athletic.

CS Athletic have joined them with a 5-3 win against Cross Keys but FC MMIX bowed out with a narrow 1-0 defeat against Bucks from Aylesbury.

Kings Arms are also out following a 4-0 defeat against Milton Keynes 87.

Willen have gone back to the top of the Premier Division of the New City Heating Sunday League after a 1-0 win over FC Lifesearch.

They have now moved three points clear of Stony Stratford but they have played four games more.

In the only other game in the division, Open University beat Padbury 5-2.

Olney remain on top of Division One after an incredible 17-1 victory over bottom club Buckingham United.

The goals in the rout came from Hardie (5), Collins (3), Smale (3), Inggall (2), White (2), Ingleson and Cardigan.

Hot on their heels are Stantonbury Social B who defeated mid-table Stantonbury The Manor 4-3 in a thrilling encounter.

MK Legends notched up their first victory of the season with a 2-1 success against Stacey Bushes, and in the remaining game MK United saw off Stoke Hammond 3-1.

MK Dons assistant manager JOHN GORMAN writes exclusively for MK NEWS every week

I WANTED the club to do well on Saturday as it was the first time I had come up against my old club Wycombe, and in the end it turned out to be a crazy match.

Both sets of fans helped to create a good derby atmosphere and I'm sure any neutrals who were in the ground would have enjoyed it as a spectacle.

We went in a goal up at half-time but we were a bit angry as we knew that it should have been more because of the chances we created.

In fact the players were even a bit quiet at the end as we were all disappointed to concede three goals.

The lead should have been bigger but in the second half we went behind after an individual error.

We were punished for a mistake defensively but there was a great response and not much could have been done about their last goal which was spectacular.

Heads didn't drop and in the end we came back to win convincingly.

It was pleasing to see Dean Bowditch score another couple of goals – all of the coaching staff have worked hard with him all season.

There were also good performances from Jabo Ibehre and Darren Potter who are both senior pros and put in so much hard work on the training ground.

Potts had a great game even though he was playing after having injections for an injury in the last few weeks.

On Monday, Charlton Athletic ended Huddersfield's unbeaten run which I thought was the best possible result for us.

It means we are just three points away from the second automatic spot so we are in an excellent position.

Now we are heading to Barnet in the FA Cup which we are looking forward to.

We are going to enjoy it but it will be a tough game as we are away from home, and there will be a few changes to give some other players a chance.

Finally I was devastated to hear the news about Gary Speed, who was someone I have come across many times during my career – I can't believe what has happened.

He was a lovely man who you could enjoy talking to and he touched a lot of people, it is tragic for his family and I was numb to hear about it on the news.

DONS 4 MK DONS WYCOMBE WANDERERS 3

Jabo Ibehre stabs home past Nikki Bull

The pride of Bucks

THIS was a Bucks derby which had a little bit of everything.

There were fantastic goals, missed chances, penalty appeals and every footballing emotion you could think of.

Dons boss Karl Robinson watched the game while wearing a heart-rate monitor – as part of testing carried out by the League Managers Association – and they could not have picked a more apt game for their experiment.

It was a pulsating, rollercoaster of a derby and every one of the 9,701 fans inside stadiummk would have left feeling like they had got their money's worth.

Wycombe, struggling in the League One relegation zone, deserve credit for how they approached the match.

Gary Waddock's side were clearly not content to sit deep and took the game to the hosts from the outset.

Former Don James Tunnicliffe was unlucky to see his header salvaged right on the line by David Martin, but his side then fell behind thanks to a superb team goal.

Robinson later declared that you wouldn't see a better strike scored in all four divisions and it is hard to argue with that assessment.

Luke Chadwick and Jabo Ibehre combined perfectly with a lovely overlap and the latter stormed down the flank.

He squared to Stephen Gleeson who passed up the chance to shoot and laid in Dean Bowditch with a decisive through ball.

There was still work to do and Bowditch beautifully stepped inside the defender before finishing across Nikki Bull.

It was a goal laced with class and Dons were then dominant.

They passed the ball around with flair and confidence and Wycombe suddenly had their backs against the wall.

The lead should have been extended but two excellent chances which would have put the game to bed went to waste.

Ibehre went clean through but saw his shot blocked by Bull and the same player then squared to Chadwick who blazed over with a gaping goal in front of him.

"Those were gilt-edge chances," Robinson said afterwards.

There are always fears that such misses will come back to haunt you and so it proved when Wycombe started a crazy second half with two goals in quick succession.

Chairboys sub Scott Donnelly got the better of Mathias Doumbe – in at right back for the ill Adam Smith – and passed to Stuart Beavon who superbly fired a finish into Martin's top corner.

Only seconds had passed when a loose pass by Mark Beevers was intercepted by Italian striker Marcello Trotta, who buried a low finish into the corner.

Dons were stunned but are in a rich vein of form in front of goal and didn't have to wait long to level.

Chadwick found joy on the left hand side and crossed for Bowditch to tap home his second.

The former Yeovil man may not have played if Dan Powell, who was also ill, had been available but he is now leading scorer with seven.

Wycombe's willingness to attack was always going to leave space and opportunities for Dons and with 11 goals in the two previous games they are currently just too good to keep missing.

Ibehre swivelled majestically to stab home the third and when Doumbe headed in from a corner it looked like Wycombe were done.

However, there was a further twist when Beavon's terrific long range drive nestled into the net to set up a tense finale late on.

It was an attacking masterclass from both sides with Dons edging it in quality, although both managers will likely be upset with defensive frailties at the back.

Wycombe certainly played well enough to suggest that they will not be relegated but it is Dons, as Robinson put it, who are now the 'pride of Buckinghamshire'.

"It was a local derby so form goes out of the window," he said.

"In the first half for 30 minutes I thought we played some of the best football I have seen here, some of it was sensational.

"We had chances to kill the game off and should have put them to the sword."

Robinson added that the derby victory was one to be remembered.

He said: "It might go down in history as a 4-3 victory in a derby is a special result which fans can celebrate.

"But it's going to be a tough place to go to when we turn this fixture around and go to their place."

There is now daylight between Dons and the last play-off spot, and they are still in touch with the automatic promotion spots.

This week, Anthony McNamee joined Wycombe on loan while Lewis Guy has returned to Oxford, but Charlie Collins' move to Kettering collapsed at the 11th hour.

VINCE'S VIEW

LIONS CHIEF VINCE MACAULAY: ONLY IN MK NEWS

Hello all, from this week's edition of Vince's View.

As I write this I have no idea how we got on against the Worcester Wolves in the Sky televised game last night – hopefully you will have heard about some good news.

What I do know is that we threw away last Friday's game against the Glasgow Rocks and need to develop a mean streak that allows us to capitalise on our good spells against teams.

We have a very good group of players who have been trying to find identity and leadership on the court – this has been a little while in coming but I am hopeful we are at the end of the soul searching and can move on to climb the league table.

The arena looked absolutely fantastic as we welcomed the Sky cameras and it is really developing well as the Lions home.

Not only have all our junior sessions taken place there but we now regularly host korfball and netball, if you haven't been down just pop in, ask for me and I'll show you around.

As a feature of the Sky game there was a profile on Head Coach Mike New and his son Michael who attends Stantonbury Campus.

Michael Jnr is on the verge of the England team and has been leading the Lions U16 team to some great things.

If you didn't catch the game live there are repeats on Sky Sports 1 and 3 today and tomorrow.

We will be back home again in double quick time as we host the Durham Wildcats on December 9, tickets for every game have really sold well so I urge you to purchase in advance or get down early on the day.

Anyway, as we approach the festive season I hope you are all set for a busy time with friends and family.

For us we will have a short break but we do have a game on December 30 – some of the players will go home and others will stay here in readiness. Check out all the news at www.mklions.com.

In the meantime, I leave you with this week's nugget, "The only people who never fail are those who never try" - Ilka Chase.

BASKETBALL

Lions hurt after defeat at death

DEFEAT was a bitter pill to swallow for MK Lions on Friday night.

In front of a packed arena, the home side led for much of the match but were pipped at the post by the visiting Glasgow Rocks who snuck into a winning position in the final seconds.

Mike New's side led 92-89 with barely a minute left on the clock but the Scottish side struck back with six quick points to stun the home crowd into silence.

New quickly called for a time-out but Carl Josey's attempt to tie the match with a three pointer was no good and Rocks escaped with a 95-92 victory in the British Basketball League (BBL) clash.

The home fans were disappointed with the officials and voiced displeasure after Lions were frequently called up for fouls, which gave Glasgow numerous chances from the free throw line.

But the result – the first home defeat for Lions this season – can't be changed and MK were left with a sick feeling in their stomachs.

A late turnover which led to a simple Rocks lay-in will perhaps be seen as the most critical moment of the match as well as Glasgow three throws in the last minute.

New told MK NEWS: "We had the game in our pocket but we threw it away with some sloppy ball handling and some poor defence.

"It was a tough one to swallow, the offense is scoring enough points to win games but we need to defend better."

The crowd's agitation with the officials was something New had sympathy with but he refused to use that as an excuse for the late heartbreak.

He said: "The officials were poor, they made some bad decisions right in front of me.

"But at the end of the day we still had the game, we were up by 13 points at one stage and we were winning with a minute left, so there are no excuses."

Lions had got off to a flying start when Nuno Pedroso helped himself to a treble of three pointers, helping MK into an 18-11 lead at one stage of the first quarter.

However, Glasgow pegged the hosts back to lead 25-24 at the first break, which was to become a recurring theme throughout the game.

MK often put together good streaks to put daylight between them and their opponents, but Rocks always closed the gap, and they did so terminally as the final seconds of the match ticked agonisingly away.

Glasgow had a delicate 41-39 lead at the half-time break but Lions looked to have taken decisive control in the third quarter with a 16-4 burst – they led 71-63 going into the final action.

However, Mychal Green quickly bagged two quick three pointers for Glasgow to pull them back into contention before the late drama.

Leading the way for Lions was Stefan Gill who picked up 19 points, followed by Dan Northern who helped himself to 16.

The result left Lions 10th in the 11 team BBL Championship but they had an early chance to return to winning ways last night when Worcester Wolves were the visitors to Winterhill for another league encounter, this time in front of the Sky Sports cameras.

Lightning strike twice to tame Steeldogs and exorcise the Phantoms

MK LIGHTNING coach Nick Poole asked his players to be more consistent, and they responded with back-to-back victories.

After three successive weekends with one win and one defeat Poole had called for the return of the early season form which saw three 100 per cent weekends in a row in October.

Things started well on Saturday with a 3-2 home win over Sheffield Steeldogs – a welcome victory after two defeats against the Yorkshire club so far this season.

Local rivals Peterborough Phantoms were dispatched 4-2 on their own rink on Sunday to leave Poole and his men happy.

Now, the challenge is to maintain that winning run, but it will be a tough ask for Lightning who are facing the prospect of three games in just five days.

The hectic schedule gets underway at 7.45pm tonight when Steve Moria's Basingstoke Bison, who Lightning beat twice in a double header last month, arrive at the Thunderdome.

Then it's the usual weekend double, with Lightning hosting Phantoms on Saturday before a trip to bottom club Telford Tigers on Sunday.

Poole's men sit fourth in the English Premier League table, with matches in hand on those above them, and only eight points separate the top eight sides in the ten team division.

With the situation so congested player-coach Poole knows that the next few matches could be key.

He said: "We've won four of our last six games and hopefully have put recent inconsistencies behind us. The teams at the top of the table are separated by only a few points, so our aim is to push onwards and upwards.

"Every time we play Basingstoke we get at least 60 minutes of end-to-end action and some great games, and Phantoms have been tricky opposition for us so far this season, but we beat them on their own ice at the weekend.

"Telford have shown a lot of teams this season that they won't give up without a fight."

The two wins this weekend provided crucial points for the league and cup campaigns, which run parallel, starting with the win over Sheffield in an extremely physical encounter.

Grant McPherson had to leave the match for hospital treatment after being barged onto the boards and Janis Ozolins' deflected shot then gave Steeldogs the advantage.

Lightning's Michael Wales and the visitors' player-coach Andre Payette were sent to the penalty box with ten minute misconduct penalties as the game threatened to simmer over.

Adam Brittle then levelled the match but Greg Wood put Sheffield back in front, before Leigh Jamieson levelled.

Lewis Christie sealed the 3-2 win with a rocket shot with the game still in the second period.

There was a great start against Peterborough when Jamieson netted after just 24 seconds, before Lightning's Blaz Emersic was thrown out of the game for clashing with Jeff Glowa – the latter fell on the MK man's skate.

Luke Ferrara levelled but Wales put Lightning back in front, before Jamie Brown tied the game once more.

This was to be Peterborough's last goal of the game though as Lightning struck twice with just over five minutes left to beat their local rivals.

Jamie Line blasted in his first ever goal for Lightning from the red line and with just seconds left Carr put the result beyond reach when he connected with a Juraj Gracik pass.

Amersham and Chiltern 39 Bletchley 13

BLETCHLEY put in a massive team effort but they came up short against National 3 South West side Amersham in the Bucks Cup semi-final.

Phil Harman's penalty put Bletchley ahead but Amersham came storming back with four tries to take a commanding 27-3 lead at the break.

It was a stronger performance in the second half though with Simon Pitfield going over for Bletchley's first try, but it did not prove to be enough against their higher level opponents.

Brighton 1 MK Men 1sts 0

MK'S MEN blamed a poor umpiring decision for this narrow defeat on the south coast.

Brighton converted a free hit into the only goal of the game and although the city side put their hosts under pressure, they were unable to find a breakthrough.

MK Ladies 1sts 0 Bracknell 3

THERE was a first defeat of the season for MK Ladies who suffered from player absentees.

A well drilled Bracknell side exploited this with their first goal before half-time and after Sophie Reynolds had missed a penalty stroke, the visitors added two further goals.

TABLE TENNIS

CITY ace Andrew Baggaley took part in a test event for the London Olympics on Friday and faced a stern test against the red hot Chinese.

The country's number one player teamed up with Liam Pritchford in the doubles but they lost 9-11, 11-6, 11-5, 11-7, 11-4 to Chinese number one seeds Ma Lin and Zhang Jike in the tournament's last eight.

Chinese players won all four senior competitions but Baggaley, with one eye on London next year, believes they can be beaten.

ATHLETICS

IT was a case of what could have been for the men of the Marshall Milton Keynes Athletic Club who hosted the 47th Wolverton Five Mile Road Race on Saturday,

Michal Glowacki finished fourth in 26m 04s but he has not yet completed the process of joining the club so his points didn't count – meaning the team finished second overall to Vale of Aylesbury by under two minutes.

However, the club's women took the title by over three minutes from Bedford with category wins for Richard Ashton (M45), Elle Roche (F20), Leah Williams (F35), and Jim McKellar (M75).

No decision on loan stars

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

KARL Robinson has yet to decide if he wants loan duo Angelo Balanta and Mark Beevers to stay at stadiummk next year, with only a month left on their current deals.

Winger Balanta and centre-half Beevers will return to QPR and Sheffield Wednesday respectively on New Year's Day and no decision has been taken on whether the club should extend their stay.

Colombian Balanta has made 18 appearances this season – scoring four times – but eight of those have been from the bench as injury and competition have prevented him gaining a long term run in the side.

Beevers has enjoyed a more regular run in the heart of defence but Wednesday boss Gary Megson will be reluctant to let him return to a promotion rival.

Robinson also enjoys an abundance of riches in that position.

Regular lynchpin Gary MacKenzie has had to settle for a place on the bench in recent weeks, despite receiving a Scotland call-up in the last international window, and Mathias Doumbe and Shaun Williams are also options at the back.

The emergence of 19-year-old centre back Tom Flanagan, who has put in some strong performances since being given a chance in the team, has increased Robinson's armour yet further.

"It's a decision that we will have to make internally," Robinson told MK NEWS.

"I will talk to the Chairman, but they are both exceptionally gifted footballers."

Robinson has already stated that he hopes to strengthen his squad in January to aid his side's promotion challenge.

Dons have now won four League One matches in a row but it's FA Cup action which will take centre stage on Saturday with a second round clash against Barnet first and foremost in the manager's thoughts.

A young Liverpool-supporting Robinson was in the crowd at Wembley when Barnet manager Lawrie Sanchez headed himself into the history books with the winner for Wimbledon in the 1988 final.

And Robinson is expecting a tough assignment from Sanchez's men who are 19th in League Two and boast former Dons striker Izzy McLeod, that division's leading goalscorer.

"I saw them beat Macclesfield last week and I was impressed with what I saw," Robinson said.

"The importance of the third round depends on who you draw but we're not being disrespectful, I'm not looking past Saturday."

Dan Powell and Adam Smith are expected to recover from illness to make the squad.

Webber win caps off superb season

RED Bull Racing wanted to put the seal on a memorable campaign with a first win of the year for Australian Mark Webber – and at the Brazilian Grand Prix the city-based team got their wish.

With Sebastian Vettel long confirmed as Formula One's youngest ever back-to-back world champion and the Constructors' Championship also in the bag, a win for Webber was the only thing missing from the copybook.

But at Interlagos on Sunday, the driver from down under finally shed his bridesmaid tag by winning the season's final race after a fine drive.

Vettel, who had once again started on pole, had to settle for being the number two Red Bull driver for once but he still managed to finish second to complete a one-two.

This was despite the German suffering from gearbox problems which put an end to his chances of winning.

"It was a very important win for me today and for the team to finish on a high is great," Webber said.

"The battle with Sebastian wasn't a strong battle in the end because he had a problem, but even so, my pace was strong and I felt very good in the car. It's a nice way to finish the year.

"Looking back, it wasn't the greatest season for me, but also not the worst."

Vettel praised his team-mate for his maiden victory.

"I got the message we had a problem, which was a shame as we had a great start to the race," he said.

"After that, it was obvious that I had to shift early and save the gearbox. I hoped it would recover so I kept pushing, but it didn't happen and then the target was to see the chequered flag."

Team Principal Christian Horner denied allegations that Webber's win was a fix after Vettel managed to hold off the rest of the field even with the faulty gearbox.

He said: "Sebastian's problem appeared on lap five, due to a gearbox that was losing oil, but Mark was not far behind at the time and Sebastian conceded the lead – Mark had a very deserving victory."
